

CB C5FA050 is a 50-foot premade Cat5e patch cord cable

The CB C5FA050 is an essential networking tool. This fifty-foot pre-made Cat5e patch cord cable offers universal connectivity to network components and computers. With its ability to rapidly send signals over long distances, the CB C5FA050 is the right choice for those who want to bridge the gap between their equipment and the web.

- Offers universal connectivity to network components and computers
- Multiple colors available
- Network Components Supported
- Can connect to any standard Ethernet device
- Supports all speeds up to Cat5e standards
- Long-distance connections between routers, PCs, and other network components
- Home and office networking
- VoIP and video streaming
- Quality and Performance
- Durability and Performance
- High-quality construction
- Cable shielding to protect against electromagnetic interference
- Rugged gold-plated RJ45 connectors
- All cables are tested in accordance with industry standards
- RoHS compliant